THE CHINA MAIL.

The town of Hanoi in Tonkin will shortly be lighted by electricity. A plan has already been drawn up for providing it with several quays.

The Agent of the O. & S. S. Co. informs us that the steamship Oceanic, with mail &c. from San Francisco to the 1st inst., has arrived at Yokohama, and will sail for this port on the 24th inst.

This suit brought against Captain Drake by the relatives of some of the deceased passengers by the Normanton has been withdrawn out of sympathy and out of a desire not to add to his cup of sorrow, which is already overflowing.

We are requested to inform the common jurors who were summoned to attend tomorrow morning at the Criminal Sessions that their presence will not be required till Tuesday next, at 10.30, it having been decided to continue the murder case to-morrow.

We have received from Messrs. S. J. P. & Hirst, the Hongkong agents of the Scottish Union and National Insurance Co., an ornamental wall calendar for 1887, containing a centre-piece an artistic chromolithographic view of Inverluy Castle, a beautiful bit of Highland scenery; a smaller and handy wall calendar, and a neat little diary.

A CORRESPONDENT suggests that a reward might now be offered by the Government for the discovery of any act of incendiarism in this Colony. Probably there is sufficient reason for such action; but the initiative might fairly be looked for from the Insurance Companies. It is, however, worthy of consideration. Another point in connection with fires (accidental or intentional) is that the present system of alarm is still far from perfect. We understand that suggestions have been made for improving them, but the Government hesitate to act upon them. Why? We are glad to hear, however, that the Government have a new steamer on the way out, to be placed at Wanchai Police Station—a change which will tend greatly towards the safeguarding of valuable property at that end of the city.

Truth learns that the Emperor of Austria, who is a great smoker, has been ordered by the doctors to give up the fragrant weed.
They attribute the ailment to it. His Majesty was in the habit of smoking twenty cigars daily.

PRALL's latest efforts, a book of 2415 without a fluke, stamps him as undoubtedly the best billiard-machine we have—that is to say, the best machine for repeating a certain monotonous stroke for the longest period without error, or with the least down. Per contra, John Roberts still remains by far the best billiard-player, and there can be no doubt that his all-round break of 534, though not so lengthy, was a more wonderful, and certainly a far more interesting effort than PRALL's. Still, so long as the spot-stroke is allowed to remain a factor in the game, the position of the champion would be anything but secure if he were called upon to defend it on an ordinary table against such a man-machine as PRALL.—Truth.

The penalties of greatness (writes the London correspondent of the Manchester Guardian) are enormous, as we know, and at a Palmrose League concert and meeting held in St. Pancras last week a lady associate brought with her an infant, about a month or six weeks old. The doctress politely but firmly refused to admit a child in arms, but the mother pleaded that the infant had been christened Randolph Churchill, and explained that it was his father's desire that he should at once begin attending Conservative meetings. The child did not cry during the evening, which we considered a happy augury for the career on which it has been thus early launched. I am told that in one church in the district of South Paddington there have been as many as three Randolph Churchills christened in the afternoon of a single Sunday.

Approves of the subject of an Imperial Penny Postage, a correspondent writes to a house paper as follows:—When in Germany last summer I had occasion to write to India.
What was my astonishment on learning from the German postal officials that I had to pay only twenty pfennigs, i.e., not quite twopence halfpenny for postage of the letter!
The same rate would have been charged for a letter to England. According to the German postal regulations, India, as well as England, France, &c., is included in the Postal Union, within which certain uniform rates obtain. How comes it that in our regulations there are two classes under the general heading 'Postal Union'? And why is the postage to India, Ceylon, Hong Kong &c., more than double what one pays in Germany?

Until we receive some explanation of this fact we cannot consider it creditable to the forethought or business management of our officials. Surely, with our immense traffic in commercial intercourse with India, we could obtain far cheaper contracts for carriage of letters than Germany can do.
These facts must be well known, but I have not seen them made public in connection with the movement of Mr. Weston.

I have chosen India as my illustration for the sake of the contrast between German enterprise and our backwardness. But, of course, it is even more important that Australia and our other colonies should be included in any measure of reform.

Every one will agree with you that, for imperial reasons, we absolutely must maintain the tie between the old colonies and the new. If we continue to exhort the present proceeding high tariff upon letters, it is also policy on the part of the Exchequer it is probably also false economy.

THE CHINA MAIL.

Tan treaty of commerce which M. Cogor-d arranged between France and China and which met with no opposition in Tonkin will not be submitted to the ratification of the French Parliament. L'Annuaire du Tonkin says that M. Constant, France's representative in China, has entered into negotiations to secure modifications.

Says Truth:—A very contemporary publisher who purports to be a portrait of the Princess Alexandra of Anhalt-Dessau, who, with characteristic imbecility, is described as 'Our future Queen'!! I can only repeat that there is not the ghost of the shadow of a feature which she is, in the particular of the Princess Alexandra of Anhalt-Dessau, and his sister, the Princess Frederik Charles of Prussia, that Princess Alexandra should marry her cousin, Prince Frederik Leopold, the brother of the Duchess of Connaught. It is only the poor German Royalty who are in these days for the English alliance. Princesses who are asked to please themselves to remain in their own country. Last year we saw Princesses of Nassau, probably the greatest heirs in Europe, marry the Crown Prince of Baden, and during the last few months two more marriages, both very wealthy, have married in the Fatherland.

FEI ZE DAY AT THE HONGKONG PUBLIC SCHOOL.

The annual distribution of prizes to the scholars attending the Hongkong Public School, St. Paul's College, took place this forenoon. The distribution was made by H.E. the Acting Governor (the Hon. W.
H. Marsh), and among those who were present were—H.E. Major General Cameron, the Missionary, Bishop Burdon, Hon. A. Lister, Hon. A. P. MacEwen, Captain Porter (the Acting Governor's ade-camp), Lieut. Colonel the General Commander-in-Chief, Dr. Eitel (Government Inspector of Schools), Messrs G. Sharp, E.
Sharp, D. R. Crawford, H. L. Dennis, J.
G. Smith, Dr. Fisher, Horder, G. H.
Bateson Wright, R. M. Jamieson, G. Piercy, G. Horwood and others, parents and friends of the pupils.

Mr. G. J. Bateman, the head-master, opened the proceedings by reading the following report:—

It would have been most interesting to myself and to the Committee, if this report of the work and condition of the Public School during the year had been presented by the Report of an independent examiner. With exception of the examination in Divinity, for the prizes so kindly contributed by the Bishop, and which was undertaken by the Rev. J. B.
Oat, and the examination of a corrected English text, which was undertaken by previously offered two prizes, the work of the year has been tested by a series of papers which I set for the upper classes and by one examination in the lower.

In order that the work may be more thoroughly examined and tested, we hope to be able to arrange for the Cambridge Syndicate for an annual examination at the close of the Midsummer Term. This can only extend to the upper classes, but it will be conducted in precisely the same plan as the local examinations, the first of which in Hongkong was held last week. At the same time, the examination in the lower classes will be conducted in the same plan as the local examinations. No boy has been harder at his subject than Mr. F. R. Lamont, and to him the second prize is awarded.

History.—The period selected by the Cambridge Syndicate for the death of John Baptist, was the death of John. In this subject the boys were wonderfully efficient a year ago, in fact, it had been neglected.
The papers set are fairly well done on the whole, but greater accuracy is needed in all, and the subject requires very great attention. It is also weak in the details of the first prize goes to A. Wallace, the DISTRIBUTION OF PRIZES AT ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE.

The annual distribution of prizes took place at St. Joseph's College this afternoon. The distribution took place in one of the class rooms, which was again gaily decorated with flags, and at the end of which a small stage for the performance of a farce by some of the pupils was erected. H. E. the Acting Governor presided, and among those who were present were Their Excellencies Vice-Admiral Hamilton and Major General Cameron, Hon. A. P. MacDonnell, Dr. Elliot (Government Inspector of Schools), Messrs G. H. Bateson Wright, C. J. Bateman, M. Rigoreau (Acting French Consul), C. Ribera (Spanish Consul), Teaki Mimahi (Japanese Consul), General Schaeffer and a host of friends and parents of the pupils.

The Very Rev. Father Burghignoli, addressing his Excellency said:—In the absence of my superior, the honour of addressing you has fallen upon me, and in doing so I will confine myself to a few remarks. The last time I had the honour of addressing you in a similar way, some six years ago, was in a hall of the already destroyed St. Joseph's College, and I have the satisfaction in my own mind of knowing that the school has not only increased in numbers, but it has also progressed in efficiency. The number of pupils is now more than double what it was then, and now have a large number of European boys. This year there are 217 European boys on the roll, and to this number you must add some 30 who are attending a special class or who for some other reason are not inscribed on the roll, so that, together with 113 Chinese, you have the total number of 330 boys frequenting the College. It has always been found difficult to get the boys to attend the 300 days necessary to enable them to be presented for examination. This year, however, I can certify myself that the attendance on the whole has been very good indeed. Many boys, of course, could not be presented for examination, because they had not attended the 300 days, but some because they are too young. It was found necessary not to hurry up these too quickly. Many of our boys pass very easily the first, second and third standards, but when they arrive at the fourth or fifth they are so young it would be a pity to let them go, and it is necessary to let their mental faculties develop more. Then they can be admitted to the higher standards. As to the result of the examination, I am pleased to say that 89 Chinese boys were presented for examination and that 79 passed, only 4 in the first standard failing. European boys were presented for examination and 110 passed, so that only two failed, in the 6th standard, one for geography and one for composition, and that one Chinese boy—we have a few Chinese boys in the European classes. I remark this, because composition has been a great difficulty, and because we have always been reminded by those who presided over the distribution of prizes of the importance of making every effort to improve the English composition. This year, I am glad to say, that the composition of the 6th standard is fair, and that of the 6th standard (12 years) good. Every one knows the disadvantage our boys labour under in making good English composition. For the most part they are Portuguese, and English is not their own language. As many of the boys who have now reached the 6th standard, however, commenced in the first standard, they may be said to have spoken English from their childhood. And so, I say with our worthy Inspector of Schools, that the school has evidently done very well on the whole, and made steady progress in being made year by year. I may add that there is a drawing class for boys who like to attend it, and that some of their drawings were found fit to be sent as they were to the London Exhibition. The special class, which unfortunately had to be discontinued last year owing to the teacher's sickness, will be reopened next year. I will now conclude by congratulating myself and the good Teachers, especially the worthy Director, under whose management St. Joseph's College has steadily advanced in every way, and by whom also the general discipline is so well kept. I congratulate, also, my young friends the pupils of the college who have worked well, and I think they will deserve the prizes which are going to be given and the subsequent holidays. (Applause.)

His Excellency Father Burghignoli, Indies and gentleman, "I have come to-day, with much pleasure, for the third time I think it is, to take part in the distribution of prizes to the successful pupils of this large and important school, the principal school for Roman Catholics in this colony. I am sure all who are here present will deplore, with me, the absence of Bishop Rainaldi, who has given great attention and takes a great interest in this school, especially when they know that the cause of his absence is ill health, which he has been progressing gradually year by year, and that the number of pupils has increased. I must express my regret that this year you have not sent forward any pupils to compete for the Local Cambridge Examinations. Perhaps it is on account of these examinations having only just been introduced into this Colony; and probably you are not aware of the great advantages that are conveyed by them. I believe there is no pecuniary principle attached to the certificates, but they are of very great value, particularly to those who wish to study medicine and law, for I believe they dispense with the preliminary examination required for these two studies at the Universities. I also regret that St. Joseph's College has not sent forward any competitor for the Government Scholarship, which is a magnificent prize of £200 a year, for the purpose of education at home, during the passages home and back, worth in all £1000. There are very few places where such a magnificent prize is given. I believe there are some difficulties on the score of religion to prevent them from competing. What these are I do not know, but I think they are insuperable for in the Colony where I had the honour to serve before I came here they had scholarships of precisely the same value, and they were introduced over 30 years ago. Now in Mauritius four-fourths, if not more, of the inhabitants are Roman Catholics, and, as a matter of fact, all these scholarships have been Roman Catholics. They all went home and studied law and medicine, and nearly all the barristers and doctors are men who went home in this way. Some of the barristers attained great eminence, and I may now tion Dr. Brown Storer, who has distinguished himself very much. I propose that there will be a competition next year, as the competitors this year did not attain the necessary number of marks. I shall be very glad to hear that St. Joseph's College has again advanced for the Government Scholarship next year. In conclusion, I congratulate you, Father Burghignoli and Directors of this Institution, upon the successful results of the past year (Applause).

His Excellency then distributed the prizes, the appended programme of music and recitations being performed between the distribution to each standard. At the conclusion, Master J. P. Braga read an address expressing gratitude to his Excellency for presiding and for the encouragement he had always extended to the College.

THE VERY REV. FATHER BURGHIGNOLI, Director of the College, then read an address expressing his gratitude to his Excellency for presiding and for the encouragement he had always extended to the College.
